

Procurement Matters for Buyers

APRIL 2015

More tips, training and CUAs...

As the Australian Disability Enterprise (ADE) initiative continues to evolve, we take a look at the impact a Metropolitan Cemeteries Board contract is having on both the agency and the ADE.

Need a new tablet or mobile device? Have a site that requires reticulated gas? The Common Use Arrangement (CUA) schedule tells you which new CUAs are in place and what's in store for 2015.

Last but not least, we give you some tips and tricks on how to evaluate a tender efficiently. Read on to find out how you can ensure your agency gets what it needs from a contract.

MCB helps build diverse skills at disability enterprise

Western Australia Government agencies continue to embrace the ADE initiative.

Tricks of the trade: Evaluate your way to success

An evaluation, or eval, is a key component to making sure your agency gets its good or service and value-for-money. Find out what we recommend on how to ensure this happens.

2015 CUA schedule

Find out what CUAs are now live, or under redevelopment and being released this year.

Procurement training

Whether you are a government buyer or a procurement professional, Government Procurement offers a range of training courses and workshops for you.

Upcoming Procurement Vocational Program modules can be found on the Finance website.

The popular Better Buying session is being held on 26 May. If you can't attend the session it is now also available online. This free, one-hour module is for government employees new to purchasing and those wanting to keep up to date with procurement policies and practices.

Contact us: If there is anything you would like to see in future editions of Procurement Matters, or if you have any questions, contact the GP Business Development Team who will be only too happy assist.