

Procurement Matters For Buyers

JUNE 2013

Welcome to the second edition of Procurement Matters for 2013.

As always, Government Procurement (GP) has been busy developing contracts, giving procurement advice and delivering workshops to agencies around the State. The Contract Management Advisory Services team is out and about showing agencies the ins and outs of contract management. Read on to find out what this team is all about.

In procurement news, the Retail Electricity Common Use Arrangement (CUA) has gone live, the ICT Services CUA has had a refresh and we take a look at the Information Security Management Services CUA.

Did you know that you can engage an Australian Disability Enterprise without going through a competitive process? GP's Lil Paskos explains how.

Fresh-faced ICT Services CUA

An upgraded eDecision Aid and a redeveloped Common Use Arrangement equal easier buying. Read more...

Is Your Cyber Security Up To Scratch?

Cyber security for agencies has improved, but agencies still remain vulnerable. Read more...

Procurement Training

Sign up to develop your procurement skills. Read more...

SETTING DISABILITY ENTERPRISES UP FOR SUCCESS

The WA Government is keen to increase procurement opportunities for disability enterprises. Agencies are free to engage any of WA's Australian Disability Enterprises (ADEs) directly. Read more...

CONTRACT MANAGEMENT – IT'S A BIG DEAL

First class contract management is key to achieving value for money outcomes for your agency. Government Procurement's Contract Management Advisory Services team offers free training and a host of tools to help agencies develop their contract management skills.

Read more...

GP OUT AND ABOUT

GP staff recently headed to Busselton to participate in the South West Forum for School Business Managers. Read more...

ELECTRICITY CUA POWERING AHEAD

Thirty-eight agencies join GP in developing an Electricity CUA that meets the needs of agencies and opens up the market. Read more...

Contact us: If there is anything you would like to see in future editions of Procurement Matters, or if you have any questions, contact the GP Business Development Team who will be only too happy assist.

