Procurement Matters for Buyers

Welcome

Welcome to another edition of Procurement Matters for Buyers.

This edition focuses on two new CUAs that have been developed; Electricity as well as Interpreting and Translation Services.

A draft Request is currently available on TendersWA for the redevelopment of the Removalist Services CUA, your feedback is requested.

Lastly, some education and training opportunities are coming as the PVP continues with its Contract Management module. Details on dates and who to talk to if you're interested are included below.

Contract Management Workshop

Just been handed a contract to manage and not sure where to start?

Government Procurement is running a two day workshop on the 25-26 June which will cover everything from establishing a contract management plan through to finalising the contract. It will arm you with all the necessary tools to be an effective contract manager. This course also counts towards the Procurement Vocation Program and can build credit toward a Diploma of Government (Procurement and Contracting) qualification. If you are interested in attending this workshop please contact Procurement Education proceducation@finance.wa.gov.au or phone (08) 6551 1642. Alternatively see online for more details.

Removalist Services CUA

The current CUA 15406 for Removalist Services will expire on 28 February 2013. The CUA is currently under redevelopment and a draft of the Request document for the replacement CUA will be available on Tenders WA throughout May. Customers are encouraged to view the draft and provide feedback where relevant.

The final Request will be advertised for tender in early June. The new CUA will go live on 1 March 2013. Please contact Megan Jefferson at megan.jefferson@finance.wa.gov.au with any questions on this CUA and the redevelopment process.
