

GENERAL CONDITIONAL AGREEMENT – TERMINATED ON RELEVANT GROUNDS

SECTION 88A OF THE DUTIES ACT 2008

APPLICATION FOR ASSESSMENT OR REASSESSMENT

A general conditional agreement is terminated on relevant grounds if, within 12 months after the date of execution of the agreement, it is not carried into effect because a condition to which it was subject, as referred to in section 87(2) of the Duties Act 2008 ('Duties Act'), cannot be fulfilled for reasons that are not within the control of a party to the agreement, or a person that is related to a party to the agreement.

A general conditional agreement is not terminated on relevant grounds if the agreement:

- is cancelled so that a replacement transaction or a subsale transaction can be entered into; or
- is not carried into effect after duty on the agreement has been paid, or is due to be paid; or
- is a terms contract under which the person liable to pay the duty has obtained exclusive use or control of the property; or
- is a farming land conditional agreement (as referred to in section 88 of the Duties Act); or
- is a mining tenement conditional agreement (as referred to in section 89 of the Duties Act); or
- is an issue of title conditional agreement (as referred to in section 90 of the Duties Act).

For further details on eligibility, please refer to Duties Fact Sheet 'Cancelled Transactions' available from the Office of State Revenue (OSR) website at www.osr.wa.gov.au.

All relevant questions must be answered in full and all transaction records (documents) for the transaction must accompany this application form.

TERMS USED

‘taxpayer’ means a person who is or may be liable to pay duty. Where there are two or more persons the taxpayer is considered to be all parties.

‘subsale transaction’, in relation to a cancelled transaction means another dutiable transaction, which results in a beneficial interest in the dutiable property being held by:

- (a) a person who is not a party to the cancelled transaction, a result which is contemplated or provided for under the cancelled transaction; or
- (b) a person who is not a party to the cancelled transaction, a result which is substantially similar in effect to the effect of the cancelled transaction; or
- (c) another person, as a result of an agreement, arrangement or understanding between a person liable to pay duty and any other party to the transaction.

‘replacement transaction’, in relation to a cancelled transaction, means another dutiable transaction that:

- (a) is between all of the same parties as the parties to the cancelled transaction; and
- (b) is substantially similar in effect to the cancelled transaction; and
- (c) in the opinion of the Commissioner, is a scheme or arrangement, or part of a scheme or arrangement, for which the sole or dominant purpose of any party is to avoid, reduce or defer the payment of duty.
