Section 247

- (1) Duty is not chargeable on the grant or transfer of a licence for a vehicle to a dealer if –
- (a) the vehicle is to be loaned by the dealer –
 - (i) to a charitable organisation to be used solely for providing assistance to underprivileged or disadvantaged persons; or
 - (ii) to a charitable organisation to be used solely for providing emergency assistance; or
 - (iii) to a school (within the meaning given in the School Education Act 1999) to be used solely for student driver training; or
 - (iv) to an individual solely for a philanthropic purpose approved by the Commissioner; or
 - (v) solely for a prescribed purpose;
 - and
 - (b) the application for the grant or transfer of the licence is accompanied by, or includes, a declaration in the approved form to the effect that –
 - (i) while the dealer holds the licence the vehicle will not be used for any purpose other than a purpose referred to in paragraph (a) or section 246(1) or (2); and
 - (ii) the dealer understands the effect of sections 248 and 249.
- (2) The Commissioner may approve a philanthropic purpose for the purposes of subsection (1)(a)(iv) for a particular dealer or class of dealer, and the approval may take effect from a day that is earlier than the day on which the Commissioner grants the approval.

Charitable organisation means a charitable institution or public benevolent institution endorsed by the Commissioner of Taxation of the Commonwealth under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) as a deductible gift recipient or as exempt from income tax.

Note: Dealers are required to confirm that the organisation to whom the vehicle is being loaned is a charitable organisation as defined above.

For this purpose, dealers should refer to the webpage at: <https://abr.gov.au/For-Business,-Super-funds---Charities/>

IMPORTANT

A person who provides information to the Commissioner of State Revenue ('the Commissioner') knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular commits an offence under the Taxation Administration Act 2003. The penalty for the offence is:

- a) $20,000; and
- b) three times the amount of duty that was avoided or might have been avoided if the false or misleading information had been accepted as true.

If a vehicle in respect of which an exemption has been granted under section 246(1) or (2) or 247(1) of the Duties Act 2008 ('Duties Act') is used for a different purpose referred to in section 246(1) or (2) or 247(1), the dealer must notify the Commissioner within one month after the day on which the use of the vehicle changed. It is an offence not to notify the Commissioner, for which the maximum offence penalty is $5,000.

If a vehicle in respect of which an exemption has been granted under section 246(1) or (2) or 247(1) of the Duties Act is used for a purpose other than a purpose referred to in section 246(1) or (2) or 247(1), the dealer must notify the Commissioner within one month after the day on which the use of the vehicle changed. It is an offence to use a vehicle that has been granted an exemption under section 246(1) or (2) or 247(1) of the Duties Act for other purposes, with the exception of minor incidental purposes, unless the Commissioner is notified. The maximum offence penalty is $20,000.

If a dealer notifies the Commissioner of the change in use, the exemption will be removed and duty will be charged on the dutiable value of the vehicle at the time of the change in use.

If a dealer does not notify the Commissioner of the change in use, the exemption will be removed and duty will be charged on the dutiable value of the vehicle at the time the grant or transfer of the licence was exempted. Penalty tax equal to the amount of duty payable will also be charged.
