FIRST HOME OWNER RATE OF DUTY
INDIAN OCEAN TERRITORIES

SECTIONS 141 – 146 OF THE DUTIES ACT 2008 (WA)(CI) & (CKI)

APPLICATION FORM AND LODGMENT GUIDE

A first home owner who is not eligible for the first home owner grant (‘FHOG’) because the home is in the Indian Ocean Territories may still be eligible for the first home owner rate (‘FHOR’) of duty. The applicant(s) will need to satisfy eligibility criteria and obligations set out in the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000 in order to obtain the FHOR of duty.

For details on eligibility, thresholds and rates please refer to the Duties Fact Sheet ‘First Home Owner Rate of Duty’ available from the Office of State Revenue website at www.osr.wa.gov.au.

Note: If it is determined that you are not eligible for the FHOR of duty, upon application, the residential rate of transfer duty will apply to the transaction. The Office of State Revenue will advise you in writing of the reasons for the determination and request an application form be completed to enable duty to be charged at the applicable concessional rate of duty.

For further information on the residential rate please refer to the Duties Fact Sheet ‘Transfer of Residential Property’ available from the Office of State Revenue website at www.osr.wa.gov.au.

TO APPLY

An applicant must:

- fully complete the application form and lodge it with all relevant supporting documentation.
- be a natural person (i.e. not applying as a company or trust) and at least 18 years of age at the time of lodgment of this form.
- be an Australian citizen or permanent resident, or be applying with a person who is an Australian citizen or permanent resident, at the commencement date of the eligible transaction.
- ensure each person holding a relevant interest in the property is an applicant at the completion of the eligible transaction.
- ensure all applicants will occupy the home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least six months commencing within 12 months of completion of the eligible transaction.
- lodge this application form within 12 months of completion of the eligible transaction.

An applicant and/or their spouse/de facto partner must not have:

- previously received the FHOG in any State or Territory of Australia.
- previously received the FHOR of duty.
- owned a residential property anywhere in Australia prior to 1 July 2000.
- owned and occupied a residential property anywhere in Australia on or after 1 July 2000.

If you purchase or are gifted a home, whether it is an existing home, new home or ‘off-the-plan’ home, you are required to submit the original signed and dated transaction record (i.e. contract for sale, transfer of land) with your application form.
Each applicant and their spouse/de facto partner must provide a single document from each of the two categories identified below (two documents per person). A single document cannot be used for more than one category. Only copies of documents (not originals) should be provided.

CATEGORY 1 – Primary identity document and evidence of citizenship or permanent residency

If an Australian citizen:
- Australian birth certificate issued by Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages
- Australian Passport
- Australian Citizenship Certificate

If a New Zealand citizen:
- Current passport

Note: New Zealand citizens must be living in Australia upon commencement of the eligible transaction.

If a citizen of another country:
- Current passport; and
- Evidence of permanent residency or permanent residence visa

Note: At least one applicant must have Permanent Residency Visa or Australian Citizenship Certificate. Permanent Residency Visa must have been issued on or before the lodgment of this form.

CATEGORY 2 – Linkage between identity and person (photo and signature) (provide one document):

- Australian Driver’s Licence (current)
- Passport (current)
- Firearms Licence (current)
- Proof of age issued by the Department for Planning and Infrastructure (photo ID card)

Additional supporting evidence is required if any of the following applies:

If you are:
- Married – a copy of your marriage certificate;
- Divorced – a copy of your divorce certificate;
- Widowed – a copy of the death certificate of your spouse/de facto partner;
- Name Change – a copy of the change of name certificate;
- Separated – a statutory declaration with the following information:
  - the name of your former spouse/de facto partner;
  - spouse/de facto partner’s date of birth;
  - the date you were married or commenced your domestic relationship;
  - the date you separated;
  - your former spouse/de facto partner’s current address (if known);
  - a statement to the effect that you do not live together and have no intention of resuming cohabitation.
All applicants must occupy the home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of six months commencing within 12 months of settlement in the case of established properties.

What happens if the applicant cannot meet the above residence requirement?

This is a notifiable event. If the residence requirement is not going to be satisfied, the applicant(s) must give written notice of the fact to the Commissioner within 30 days of the expiration of the residency requirement, or of the date it becomes apparent that the residency requirement cannot be fulfilled, whichever is earlier. The Commissioner may consider an exemption or a variation to this requirement in certain cases if a request is made. The transaction will be reassessed upon completion of the relevant application form at the residential concessional rate of duty.

Please note that all applications for the FHOR of duty are subject to scrutiny by the Office of State Revenue to confirm that applicant(s) have met the eligibility criteria as required. Applicants who fail to meet these criteria will be required to pay duty at the applicable rate of duty and an additional penalty of up to 100% of the duty plus any duty that would have been chargeable had the FHOR of duty not been applied.

Proof of identity
The following documentation is required as proof of Australian Citizenship or Permanent Resident status for one of the applicants and MUST be sighted by OSR and MUST be submitted in support of the application.

A photocopy of one of the following:

- Australian or New Zealand birth certificate or birth extract;
- Australian or New Zealand Passport;
- Australian citizenship certificate;
- Permanent Residency Visa

Date Granted: / / 20

Sub Class:

Supporting evidence (if applicable)
Copy of divorce (Decree nisi), marriage, death or change of name certificate.

Statutory declaration for those who have separated must have: name of spouse, spouse’s date of birth, date of marriage, date of separation, current address (if known), and a statement to the effect that the couple do not intend to live together and have no intention of resuming cohabitation.

Proof of acquisition of property
For an established home, new home or ‘off the plan’ home, you are required to submit the original signed and dated transaction record (e.g. contract for sale, transfer of land) with your application form.

Note: do not post original proof of identity and supporting evidence documents to the Office of State Revenue. Only post photocopies of the documents.
Reference should be made to the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000 and the Duties Act 2008 (WA)(CI) & (CKI) for an exhaustive list of definitions.

Applicant(s) – A person(s) who, on completion of the eligible transaction will have a relevant interest in the land on which the home is built.

Commencement of the Eligible Transaction – The date when the dutiable transaction is entered into.

Commissioner – Commissioner of State Revenue.

Completion of the Eligible Transaction – The date when the transferee(s) becomes entitled to possession of the home.

Established home – A home that has been previously occupied and is lawfully fit for occupancy.

Home – A building, affixed to land, that:
(a) may lawfully be used as a place of residence; and
(b) is, in the Commissioner’s opinion, a suitable building for use as a place of residence.

Intended Date of Occupancy – Is the date on which the applicant(s) expects to commence living in the home as their principal place of residence.

Natural Person – A person, and does not include a company.

New Home - A home that has not been previously occupied or sold as a place of residence.

Notifiable Event – When any part of the eligibility criteria cannot be met, the applicant(s) must notify the Commissioner within 30 days from the occurrence of the event. For example, when the applicant(s) does not occupy the home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of six months.

Off the Plan – An agreement for the purchase of the home on a proposed strata lot in an unregistered plan of subdivision of land.

Office of State Revenue/OSR – Office of State Revenue of Western Australia

Owner/Home Owner – A person who has a relevant interest in land on which a home is built.

Permanent Resident – A person who holds a permanent visa within the meaning of section 30 of the Migration Act 1958 (Cth), or a New Zealand citizen who is the holder of a special category visa within the meaning of section 32 of the Migration Act 1958 (Cth), and has satisfied the Commissioner that he or she intends to reside permanently in Australia.

Relevant Interest – Refers to the means by which a person holds their interest in land on which the home is built. This commonly is an estate in fee simple. Other forms of interest are defined in the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000.

Residential Property (First Home Owner Grant Act 2000) – Land in Australia on which there is a home, which is a lawfully occupied residence or is suitable for occupation. These include houses, townhouses, units, flats, duplexes, converted warehouses, fixed transportables and moveable homes.

Spouse/De facto partner – The person who on the commencement date of the eligible transaction to which the application relates, is married or living in a de facto relationship with the applicant and has lived on that basis with the applicant for at least 2 years.
